CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

“Carriage is subject to the following conditions:

1. The ‘Carrier’ means MAF International Asia Pacific, their parent companies, subsidiaries, representatives, servants and agents. The ‘Passenger’ means the passenger to whom this document is issued or who is carried by virtue of the issue thereof.

2. The Carrier is not a ‘Common Carrier’ and does not accept the obligations and liabilities of a common carrier and reserves the right to refuse carriage to any person or persons.

3. In the event of bodily injury or death of the Passenger, the liability of the Carrier to the Passenger is limited to the sum of A$500,000 and to the sum of A$160 in respect of loss of or damage to personal effects. Except as established by law or by these conditions of carriage, the Carrier has no further liability to the Passenger or any other party.

4. These terms and conditions of carriage are good for travel only on the flight or flights listed.

5. The Passenger will comply with all reasonable requests of the Carrier or its servants relating to safety and personal conduct.

6. No Passenger shall enter or remain in any part of the Carrier’s aircraft or any part of the Carrier’s premises while intoxicated and no Passenger will smoke in any place when prohibited from doing so.

7. For safety reasons, the passenger shall not carry on his or her person any dangerous goods, weapons or items which might endanger the security of the flight. The Carrier reserves the right to inspect bags or cargo for dangerous or prohibited goods, as well as to confiscate, destroy, dispose of, abandon, or retain as evidence, any prohibited items.

8. Any action at law arising out of these conditions of carriage or concerning the interpretation thereof or concerning the liability of the Carrier under these conditions of carriage shall be brought in Queensland and the interpretation of these conditions of carriage shall be governed by the law of the Queensland regardless of where these conditions are issued.

9. Any action in court to claim damages must be brought within two years from the date of arrival of the aircraft or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived.

10. No servant, agent or representative of the Carrier has the authority to alter, modify or waive any provision of these conditions of carriage.”
